C	Core School Value		Trips, Enrichment Days and Visitors		Parental Involvement
З	Inquisitive			Stay and Play Session
	Literacy Maths	Linda Sarah. W phonic sounds working on seg In maths, we a	s this term are 'I like Trains' by Daisy Hirst and 'On Sud /e are focusing on reading simple phrases and sentence and when necessary, a few common exception words gmenting sounds for writing using phonetically plausib are going to be representing, comparing and building no to learn about odd and even numbers within this, as w	es using known s. We are also le spellings. umbers 1—8.	Core Books
3	Communication and Language Personal, Social and Emotional Development	up to 8. We wind the wind the second	<ul> <li>We will explore comparing mass and capacity as well.</li> <li>We are going to be focusing on using talk to connect one idea of action using a range of connectives. We are also working on articulating our ideas and thought into well-formed sentences.</li> </ul>		train-loving little dog, which perfectly captures the world of a young child. Small Dog likes playing with trains, pretending to drive them and reading books about them, but catching a real train to go and visit Granny is the best thing of all.
Birch—Term		We are going to be working on showing resilience and perseverance in the face of challenge. We are also going to be thinking about identifying and moderating our own feelings socially and emotionally.			In Suddan Hill
	Physical Development	on confidently	to be focusing on working with others this term. We wi and safely using a range of large and small apparatus i and in a group.	-	A box is a wonderful thing. Of course, it's useful for transporting things, but its most charming uses are when it's a robot, house or a spaceship, really anything your imagination wants. Birt and Etho are old
	— Understanding the World –	between famil	to be focusing on recognising some similarities and diffiar situations in the past. We will be looking at and con s of transport from past and present.	larities and differencesfriends who climb up Sudden Hill vking at and comparingtheir boxes and play many games.day another child with his box want	friends who climb up Sudden Hill with their boxes and play many games. One day another child with his box wants to join them. He has a fine box, ideas too,
	Expressive Arts and Design		to be listening attentively, moving to and talking about sing our feelings and responses.	music focus-	but as the saying goes 'two's company, three's a crowd' and Birt 'feels strange' about sharing his friend and so begins to avoid them. However, who can hold out against the allure of 'an incredible monster creature box thing', and eventually two friends become three and that feels good. A compelling story about accepting someone new.
	RE		to be thinking about what Christians believe is special a hat he brings. We will learn about Jesus' Disciples and p.			